

189—19.6(533) Confidentiality of ballots.

19.6(1) The board of directors shall appoint from the credit union membership an election committee of not less than five members to be in charge of counting of the ballots and verifying that no eligible member voted more than once. No more than two members of the election committee shall be from the board of directors.

19.6(2) All returned ballots become the property and responsibility of the election committee.

19.6(3) No director, employee, agent or member of the election committee shall reveal the manner in which any member voted on the proposed amendment, modification, reversal or instruction to take action.